Dear Jim:

Thank you very much for working with us in Winnipeg on April 24, 2001. I personally enjoyed both your presentation style and the message you brought to us. The sessions were well received by all participants. Your personal experiences and stories illustrated your points clearly. People enjoyed your humour and delivery, and found value in your messages.

We received the following feedback from the section of the evaluation form which asked participants to rate "Jim Clemmer's Keynote Address, Growing the Distance: Timeless Leadership Principles for Success." 92% of participants rated Jim's session as either "Excellent," or "Very Good."

I believe that participants appreciated receiving a copy of Growing the Distance. One participant in particular makes frequent references to the concepts and ideas put forth in it.

Regards,

John Charrette
